Book Description

Review A foe of extraordinary polemical agility. Washington Post Mr. Shapiro, 33, a graduate of Harvard Law School, is the cool kid s philosopher, dissecting arguments with a lawyer s skill and references to Aristotle. New York Times Shapiro is exactly what the conservative movement needs not just content to have people be dazzled by hisbrilliance he actually goes out and confronts and tries to persuade, mobilize, motivate people. Rush Limbaugh Shapiro may be the most important conservative at work today. In his prolific output, forensic zeal and ability, love of the fray, exhausting schedule, adoption of new communications platforms, captive audience, and conservative ecumenism, Ben Shapiro resembles no one so much as the young William F. Buckley Jr. Matthew Continetti, Washington Examiner Shapiro s fans are legion enough to constitute a political faction of their own. Every time he debates a pundit, student, or highprofile liberal, his fans immediately compile his remarks into YouTube clips. Vanity Fair About the Author Ben Shapiro is editorinchief of emThe Daily Wireem and host of The Ben Shapiro Show, the top conservative podcast in the nation. A emNew York Timesem bestselling author, Shapiro is a graduate of Harvard Law School, and an Orthodox Jew, his work has been profiled in nearly every major American publication, and he has appeared on hundreds of radio and television shows. He has appeared as the featured speaker at many conservative events on campuses nationwide, several of those appearances targeted by progressive and Antifa activists.
